Extracts and links: from newsletters 1979-2001; annual reports 2002-2020+

Executive committees: Elections originally at biennial Jan/Feb conference; then at AGMs later in the year. Committees of directors originally state-based changing location biennially; with interstate state representatives; later committee members across different states; details not always listed in newsletters in early years. Later listings in on-line annual reports.

Conferences: originally organised in Jan/Feb at end of 2-year term, by the previous Board with subcommittees. Links below show place, people, schedule of workshops, exhibitions, conference talks, lead-up and follow-up comments and in some cases, published papers.

Note: numbering corrected from 2011 on; mistakenly numbered 15th for second time.

1978	1978: 1st National Glass Conference NSW: Sydney College of the Arts,	Lead-up:

	December 1978 Conference organised by: Maureen Cahill, Warren Langley, Rob Knottenbelt	'Organised by phone': conversation, Maureen Cahill Follow-up: #1 - 1979 (Ausglas newsletter, ed Warren Langley) 'It is reasonable to assume that the conference was a success. Certainly it was the first opportunity many of us had to meet others working in the same field and suffering under the same problems of isolation and poor to non-existent dispersal of information. It is hoped that the seeds have been sown for a better communication and freer interchange of information.'

2012		Ausglass newsletter: March 2013 Ausglass now ushers in a new era. I'm the last of the dinosaurs. We have a snappy new Executive Administration Officer, a Financial Sub Committee and soon a Futures Advisory Group. The days of President being all things administrative is over and finally Ausglass can get on with the Vision for the future for all of us. So roll on Ausglass. 2021		Web page, https://ausglass.org/home December 2021 ‘Ausglass (The Australian Association of Glass Artists) Limited is a not-for-profit members organization. The Company has a Board of volunteer Directors elected by Members. Directors are appointed for a three-year term and for a maximum of two consecutive terms. The Board meets in face-to-face meetings at least once a year and monthly by teleconference during the remainder of the year. The Board of Directors is responsible for running Ausglass and appoints office-bearers from its ranks. Members in various State and Territories are supported by the Board in organising activities initiated by local Members. Such activities are capable of forging strong relationships with local communities and with businesses, organisations and institutions whose objectives are consistent with those of Ausglass. Such ties enable Ausglass to function beyond the borders of its Membership and to participate in broader conversations about issues relating to art glass.’	2021: Ausglass Directors Elaine Miles: President (Vic) (from 27 November 2020), Vice President (to 27 November 2020) Grants and Funding Officer, HLM Officer Peter Nolan: Secretary, Director Membership (ACT) Christine Atkins: Director Exhibitions (Qld) Kate Baker: Director Development (NSW) Caroline Field: Director, Curator (Vic) Nadina Geary: Director Projects (ACT) Aaron Micallef: Director State Representative Liaison (Qld) Denise Orchard: Honorary Treasurer (Vic) Executive administrator: Jane Hebiton (WA) Book-keeper: Fiona Holmes (Tas) State representatives: Email newsletter?
