

GARY REDMAN — ARTIST CV

Born 1960

Currently lives and works in Sydney Australia

Mobile: 0406714139

Email: namderg@hotmail.com

Web: https://gary_redman.pencil.com/

Gary Redman is an emerging sculptor, working in cast glass, using fusing and casting techniques to bring life to ideas. Redman has decided a minimalist approach to shape and structure appeals to his sense of style, and often employs a rich and varied palette.

EDUCATION

BDID: BACHELOR DEGREE - INDUSTRIAL DESIGN 1ST CLASS HONOURS UTS SYDNEY.

Mostly self-taught in the technical aspects of glass and its manipulation.

STUDIED GLASS UNDER:

KATE BAKER

EVELYN DUNSTAN

KIRSTIE REA

COLLECTIONS

PRIVATE COLLECTION, MELBOURNE, VIC

PRIVATE COLLECTION, SYDNEY, NSW

AWARDS

2021: 2ND PLACE, GLASS. SYDNEY ROYAL EASTER SHOW ART AND CRAFT SHOW

THOUGHTS

It has been suggested that when starting any endeavour that is important, construct a "Haiku", a form of poetry from Japan, using the process to compress ideas down to 4 lines of text.

The influences for Redman's art come from the concrete sculptures by Van Borren and the glass pieces of Thaddeus Wolfe.